

The Second Annual Santa Fe River Festival & Picnic

Come Celebrate the River!

Saturday

May 31, 2008

11:00 am – 2:00 pm

Alto Park

(Alire and Alto Streets)

Water Fun for the Whole Family !

Hands-On River and Water Demonstrations!
Riparian Raptors! Water Games! Guided River Walk!
Live Water Bugs! Wildflower Seed Balls! Mural Making!
Crafts! Wildland Fire Truck Demonstration!

Bring a Picnic Lunch and Enjoy Live Music on the Grass

Valet Bike Parking Available Courtesy of Mellow Velo

Free youth bus passes available

Join us earlier for a River Clean-Up from 9:00-11:00 am as part of National River Clean-up Day

For more information 820-1696 or www.santafewatershed.org

Presented by the Santa Fe Watershed Association,

Sponsored by the City and County of Santa Fe and local businesses.

Participating organizations and agencies include: New Mexico Environment Department Surface Water Quality Bureau, U.S. Forest Service, Earth Works Institute, Audubon New Mexico, City of Santa Fe River Commission, City of Santa Fe Water Conservation Department, City of Santa Fe Fire Department, Santa Fe County Open Space and Trails Division, The Wildlife Center, Earth's Birthday, Earth Care International, Santa Fe Mountain Center, Jane Goodall's Roots & Shoots, Youthworks!, The Quivira Coalition, El Camino Real River Connection, Concerned Citizens for Nuclear Safety, High Desert Angler.